SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This matter has been resolved by compromise, and subject to Court approval of the terms and conditions of this Settlement Agreement (“Settlement Agreement”), is made and entered into, as of July 17, 2020, by and among Plaintiff Ted Broughton (the “Named Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself and the putative settlement class as defined below (the “Settlement Class” and, with the Named Plaintiff, the “Plaintiffs”), and Payroll Made Easy, Inc. d/b/a Continuum HR (“Continuum HR” or “Defendant”) related to claims in Broughton v. Payroll Made Easy, Inc. d/b/a Continuum HR, No. 2:20-cv-00041-SPC-NPM (M.D. Fla.) (the “Action”). Plaintiffs and Defendant are collectively referred to herein as the “Parties.” This Settlement Agreement is intended by the Parties to fully, finally, and forever resolve, discharge, and settle the Action and the Released Claims (as defined below), upon and subject to the terms and conditions hereof (“Settlement”) as follows:

I. THE FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT CLAIMS

On January 17, 2020, Plaintiffs filed a Complaint in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida (ECF 1.) The Action alleges that Defendant violated

§§1681b(b)(2)(a)(i) and (ii) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. 1681a-1681x (“FCRA”) in connection with procuring background reports for employment purposes. The Action is filed on behalf of the Named Plaintiff, individually, as well as on behalf of employees and job applicants residing in the United States for whom Continuum HR procured a consumer report for employment purposes using the same or substantially similar FCRA consent form as provided by Continuum HR to the Named Plaintiff and attached as Exhibit A to the Complaint. The Action alleged that Continuum HR is an employee leasing company and is a user of consumer reports within the meaning of the FCRA and provided FCRA consent forms that were used by a consumer reporting agency in procuring consumer reports about the Named Plaintiff and purported class members for employment purposes.

Plaintiffs allege that Defendant violated the FCRA as to the Named Plaintiff and purported class members because it allegedly provided Plaintiffs with a purported FCRA consent form that was not in compliance with certain FCRA strictures before procuring a consumer report from a consumer reporting agency on behalf of Plaintiffs’ employers. Defendant denies Plaintiffs’ allegations and denies that it committed any violation of the FCRA.

The Action seeks to recover statutory damages, punitive damages, and attorneys’ fees and costs. The Named Plaintiff and purported class members in the Action are represented by Marc Edelman of Morgan & Morgan P.C. (“Class Counsel”). Defendant is represented by Matthew Simpson and Christine Howard of Fisher Phillips LLP (“Defense Counsel”).

Following the filing of the Action, Defendant provided Plaintiff with information regarding the number of job applicants and employees for whom Defendant procured consumer reports using the same or substantially similar FCRA consent forms as provided by Continuum HR to the Named Plaintiff and attached as Exhibit A to the Complaint over both the two-year and five-year statute of limitations period preceding the filing of the Complaint. The Parties also participated in a full-day mediation and numerous and frequent informal negotiations, which resulted in this Settlement.

II. DEFENDANT'S DENIAL OF ANY WRONGDOING AND LIABILITY

Defendant denies all charges of wrongdoing or liability arising out of any of the conduct, statements, acts, or omissions alleged, or that could have been alleged, in the Action and believes it has a number of legal and factual defenses to the Released Claims asserted by the Named Plaintiff and the purported class members in this Action. Defendant believes that were it to proceed with this lawsuit, class certification would be denied and it would prevail on motion for summary judgment and/or at trial. Defendant, however, has agreed to settle this Action to avoid further fees and expenses and to bring closure to this litigation. This Settlement constitutes a compromise settlement of disputed claims and shall not be deemed or construed to be an admission or acknowledgement of liability on any allegations or claim asserted in this Action. Any stipulations or statements by Defendant contained in this Settlement Agreement are made for settlement purposes only.

III. CLAIMS OF PLAINTIFFS AND BENEFITS OF SETTLEMENT

Plaintiffs believe that the claims asserted in the lawsuit have merit and that if the case did not settle, they would prevail at trial. However, Plaintiffs and Class Counsel recognize and acknowledge the expense and length of continued proceedings necessary to prosecute the case against Defendant through trial and through appeals. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel also have taken into account the uncertain outcome and the risk of any litigation, including proceedings involving class certification. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believe that the settlement set forth in this Settlement Agreement confers substantial benefits on the Settlement Classes and is fair, reasonable, and adequate. and in the best interests of Plaintiffs and the Settlement Classes.

IV. TERMS OF THE AGREEMENT OF SETTLEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by and among the Parties, by and through their respective attorneys, that, subject to the approval of the Court, the Action and the Released Claims shall be finally and fully compromised, settled, and released, and the Action shall be dismissed with prejudice upon and subject to the terms and conditions of the Settlement as follows:

The “Settlement Class” consists of: All natural persons residing in the United States (including all territories and other political subdivisions of the United States) for whom Continuum HR procured a consumer report for employment purposes using the same or substantially similar FCRA consent form as provided by Continuum HR to the Named Plaintiff and attached as Exhibit A to the Complaint between January 17, 2015, and the date of Preliminary Approval.

Excluded from the class definition are any employees, officers, or directors of the Defendant, any attorney appearing in this case, and any judge assigned to hear this action, together with their immediate family members and any persons employed by him or her.

This is a material term of this Settlement. In the event that the class size exceeds 1,140 by more than 5%, Plaintiffs will have the right to withdraw from this Settlement unless Continuum HR increases the Settlement Fund referenced below proportionately to account for the larger class size.

2.3. On the Effective Date, the Settlement Classes set forth in section 2.2 above shall become permanently certified unless the Judgment does not become Final.

2.4. In the event the Settlement is not preliminarily and finally approved and implemented, or the Judgment does not become Final, the Settlement Classes are dissolved without prejudice or inference regarding the appropriateness of class certification and thereafter the issue of class certification will be decided de novo, and Defendant is not precluded from challenging class certification.

2.5. Defendant agrees to a gross settlement of Two Hundred Twenty Thousand Dollars ($220,000.00) to resolve the claims set forth by the Settlement Class, constituting the Settlement Fund.

2.5.1. Plaintiff will pay for mediation costs and seek reimbursement from the Settlement Fund.

2.5.2. The Settlement Payments will be calculated and distributed to the Class

Members pro rata as follows:

- Ninety-Seven Thousand Three Hundred Ninety-Two Dollars ($97,392.00) of the Settlement Claim Fund distributed to those members of the Two-Year Class of 602 individuals who submit timely and valid Claim Forms on a pro-rata basis (i.e. $161.78 per individual) based on the total number of Two-Year Class Members, with any unclaimed funds from the Settlement Claim Fund reverting back to Defendant, and
- Twenty-Four Thousand Three Hundred Forty-Eight Dollars ($24,348.00) of the Settlement Claim Fund distributed to those members of the Five-Year Class of 538 individuals who submit timely and valid Claim Forms on a pro-rata basis (i.e. $45.25 per individual), with any unclaimed funds from the Settlement Claim Fund reverting back to Defendant,

2.5.3. The Settlement Payment will be distributed to each Class Member who timely submits a proper Claim Form in compliance with all terms and conditions of this Settlement Agreement.

2.5.4. Any unclaimed funds of the Settlement Claim Fund and any uncashed Settlement Payments after the expiration of the 90-day period for negotiating checks used to distribute the Settlement Claim Fund shall automatically revert back to Defendant.

2.6. In exchange for the releases and waivers of claims described below, Defendant will pay the amount of the Settlement Fund in settlement of all claims asserted against it in this Action from which Settlement Fund the Settlement Class Members will be paid and the Court-approved Class Counsel Attorney's fees and costs, Named Plaintiff's Service Award, and class settlement administration costs will be paid. Defendant shall deposit 100% of the full Settlement

Fund with the Settlement Administrator within ten (10) days after the date of the Final Approval Order. The Settlement Fund will be distributed to the Settlement Class Members pro rata based as determined pursuant to section 2.5.2, using the timeline set forth below.

(a) Initial payments to Settlement Class Members will be mailed by the Settlement Administrator by check and delivered by first-class U.S. mail, postmarked within ten (10) business days of the Effective Date. All initial checks will expire ninety (90) days after they are issued and will state the expiration date on their faces. If any such payment is returned by the U.S. Postal Service as undeliverable, or is uncashed or not negotiated before it expires, neither Defendant nor the Settlement Administrator nor Class Counsel shall have any further obligations to Plaintiff or any Settlement Class Member, except that:

(i) For any check returned by the U.S. Postal Service with a forwarding address before the check's expiration date, the Settlement Administrator will re-mail the check to the forwarding address;

(ii) If a Settlement Class Member contacts the Settlement Administrator or Class Counsel to request a replacement check before the initial check is negotiated, the Settlement Administrator will comply with that request by cancelling the initial check and issuing a replacement check.

(b) The Parties agree that all Settlement Class Members waive and abandon any ownership interest in any such unclaimed, undeliverable, returned, uncashed, or non-negotiated checks and further agree that no obligation has been generated or proven with respect to such undeliverable, returned, uncashed, or non-negotiated checks.

(c) After the initial 90-day period for negotiating checks (which total uncashed first check remainder will be calculated by the Settlement Administrator no later than 30 days following the 90-day check expiration date), any unclaimed funds from the Settlement Claim Fund and any uncashed settlement compensation shall automatically revert back to Defendant.

2.7. All taxes on the income of the Settlement Fund and tax-related expenses incurred in connection with the taxation of the Settlement Fund, if any, shall be paid out of the Settlement Fund.

2.8. Members of the Settlement Class shall be solely responsible for the taxes, interest, and penalties due and owing, if any, should the payment of Settlement Funds, or any portion thereof, be determined to be taxable.

3. Release

On the Settlement Effective Date, all members of the Settlement Class who have not timely and properly opted out of the settlement, and all those acting or purporting to act on their behalf including, but not limited to, their successors, assigns, legatees, heirs, and personal representatives, fully and forever release, waive, acquit, and discharge Defendant and the Released Parties to the fullest extent permitted by law from any and all Released Claims. Members of the Settlement Class are not releasing Blue Magma Residential from any FCRA-related claims as part of this Agreement.²

4. Notice, Opt Out, and Settlement Approval

4.1. Not later than seven (7) calendar days after the Court has issued the Preliminary Approval Order, Defendant shall disclose the names and last known addresses of members of the Settlement Class to the Settlement Administrator. Class Counsel will have three (3) business days to note any objections to the content or format of the Class List, which will otherwise be deemed as acceptable and approved for use by the Settlement Administrator.

No later than seven (7) calendar days after receipt of such information, the Settlement Administrator will mail the Notice (attached as Exhibit “B”) to all Settlement Class Members via first-class U.S. Mail, postage prepaid and return service requested to such Settlement Class Member’s last known mailing address, as updated by using the U.S. Postal Service’s database of verifiable mailing addresses (the CASS database) and the National Change-of-Address database. The Notice shall bear the Settlement Administrator’s mailing address as the return-mail address. The Notice will include an indication it is a “Court Approved Settlement Notice authorized by the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida” and may also include a bar code.

A Claim Form (Exhibit “A”) will also be included as part of the mailing.

No later than seven (7) calendar days after the Court has issued the Preliminary Approval Order, the Settlement Administrator shall post a website containing information about the Settlement, including all relevant dates and pleadings.

4.2. For all Notices returned to the Settlement Administrator without forwarding addresses, the Settlement Administrator will use publicly available databases as practicable to update those Settlement Class Members’ addresses and will cause the Notice to be re-mailed by the Settlement Administrator to such Settlement Class Members who can be located.

4.3. The Settlement Administrator will establish and staff a toll-free telephone line that members of the Settlement Class can use to contact the Settlement Administrator with questions about the settlement or to change their addresses.

4.4. To receive a portion of the Settlement Claim Fund, all members of the Settlement Class must submit a timely Claim Form by the Response Deadline. Claim forms may be submitted through a claims filing portal on the settlement website, by fax, or by mail. The date of the postmark on the return mailing envelope or the timestamp on the fax or claims filing portal will be the exclusive means to determine whether a Claim Form has been timely submitted. However, it is not the intention of the Parties to exclude Class Members from participating in the Settlement for technical reasons that do not interfere with the orderly administration of the Settlement. Therefore, the Settlement Administrator will compile a list of claims rejected for failure to cure an unsigned Claim Form.

If the Settlement Class Member's Claim Form or Request for Exclusion is defective as to the requirements listed herein, that Class Member will be given an opportunity to cure the defect(s). The Settlement Administrator will mail the Class Member a cure letter ("Cure Letter") within three (3) business days of receiving the defective submission to advise the Class Member that his or her submission is defective and that the defect must be cured to render the Claim Form or Request for Exclusion valid. The Class Member will have until the later of (a) the Response Deadline or (b) fifteen (15) calendar days from the date of the cure letter, to postmark, fax, or electronically submit a revised Claim Form or Request for Exclusion. If a Class Member responds to a Cure Letter by filing a defective claim, then the Claims Administrator will have no further obligation to give notice of a need to cure. If the revised Claim Form is not postmarked, received by fax, or electronically submitted within the later of (a) the Response Deadline or (b) fifteen (15) calendar days from the date of the cure letter, it will be deemed untimely.

4.8. All members of the Settlement Class will have the right to be excluded from, i.e., to "opt out" of, the Settlement Class. On or before the Response Deadline, each member of the Settlement Class who elects to opt out of the settlement must send, by first-class U.S. mail, written notice addressed to the Settlement Administrator indicating his or her name and address and stating that he or she desires to opt-out of the settlement or otherwise does not want to participate in the settlement. Any member of the Settlement Class who does not timely (as measured by the postmark on that individual's written notice) opt out of the settlement by written notice directed to the Settlement Administrator and containing the requisite information shall remain a member of the Settlement Class and shall be bound by any Orders of the Court about the Settlement or the Settlement Class. Any member of the Settlement Class who fails to timely and validly opt out of the Settlement shall be bound by the terms of this Settlement.

4.9. Any member of the Settlement Class who wishes to object to the settlement must return to the Settlement Administrator a timely written statement of objection no later than thirty (30) days after the date the Settlement Administrator mails the Notice of Settlement. The Notice of Objection must state (1) the case name and number; (2) the name, address, telephone number, and email address (if any) of the member of the Settlement Class making the objection; (3) a statement of the objection(s) being asserted; (4) a detailed description of the facts and any legal authorities underlying each objection; (5) a notice of intent to appear at the Final Approval Hearing, if the Settlement Class Member making the objection intends to appear; (6) a list of any witnesses the Settlement Class Member making the objection may call to testify at the Final Approval Hearing, whether in person, by deposition, or affidavit; and (7) a list of any exhibits, and copies of the same, which that objector may offer at the Final Approval Hearing. Any objection must be personally signed by the objector.

No member of the Settlement Class shall be entitled to contest in any way the approval of the terms and conditions of this Agreement or the Court's Final Approval Order except by filing and serving written objections in accordance with the provisions of this Settlement Agreement and Release. Any member of the Settlement Class who fails to make objections in the manner specified above shall be deemed to have waived any objections and shall be foreclosed from making any objections, whether by appeal or otherwise, to the settlement.

The Settlement Administrator shall provide any objections and backup information to Defendant's Counsel and Class Counsel, who shall file same with the Court at least seven (7) days before the Final Approval Hearing or as otherwise ordered by the Court.

4.10. As soon as practicable after the Parties execute this Agreement, Class Counsel will present this Agreement to the Court for preliminary settlement approval and will request by unopposed motion that the Court enter a Preliminary Approval Order.

4.11. The Parties agree to cooperate to work to schedule a Final Approval Hearing as soon as practicable.

5. Final Approval Hearing Judgment and Notice

5.1. The Final Approval Hearing, as established in the Notice Order, shall be for the purpose of consideration of Final approval of the Settlement set forth in this Settlement Agreement.

5.2. No later than ten (10) calendar days before the Final Approval Hearing, the Settlement Administrator will certify to the Court that it has fully complied with the notice provisions set forth in Section 4 herein.

Defendant and Class Counsel. All funds shall be maintained in a bank escrow account unless the Parties jointly agree otherwise. Costs of settlement administration due to Defendant under Paragraph 2.5.4 shall be paid from the Settlement Fund after the distribution to Class Members and other payments contemplated in Paragraph 2.5.1, and any unused costs shall revert to Defendant. On completion of the administration of the Settlement, the Settlement Administrator shall provide or cause to be provided to the Court a final report on its administration of the Settlement. The Settlement Administrator shall have and shall provide to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel reasonable access to documents relating to compliance and administration of the Settlement, with the right, but not the obligation, to review and audit the documents to determine full compliance with the terms of the Settlement. The Settlement Administrator shall hold all documents and information received regarding Class Members and Potential Class Members in confidence, and not use such information for any purpose apart from administering the settlement.

6.2. No person shall have any claim against the Settlement Administrator, Class Counsel, Defense Counsel and/or Defendant based on the monetary payments made substantially in accordance with this Settlement Agreement, or further order(s) of the Court or stipulations of the Parties on the record.

7. Plaintiffs' Counsel's Attorneys' Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses

7.1. Class Counsel shall make an application to the Court for an award from the Settlement Fund for attorneys' fees, costs, and other expenses in an amount not to exceed $73,260.00 of the Settlement Fund. Defendant shall not oppose or object to this application provided that the request for an award of fees and costs is consistent with this Settlement. The Court's award of fees and costs shall be payable from the Settlement Fund within ten (10) business days after the Effective Date.

The Named Plaintiff shall apply to the Court to receive compensation for serving as class representative in the amount of $5,000.00 (the “Service Award”), which shall be in addition to any other sum he may receive as a Class Member. Named Plaintiff will file his request for approval of the Service Award no later than fourteen (14) days before the Final Approval Hearing. SUPPLEMENTAL SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Supplemental Settlement Agreement (the “Supplemental Agreement”) is entered into by and between Named Plaintiff Ted Broughton (“Broughton”), on the one hand, and Defendant Payroll Made Easy, Inc. d/b/a Continuum HR (“Defendant”)¹, on the other.

1. Purpose: This Supplemental Settlement Agreement supplements and incorporates the Settlement Agreement to be executed by the Parties. The purpose of this Supplemental Agreement is to fully and conclusively resolve and settle all matters and claims Broughton could assert against Defendant and the Released Parties, as defined in the Settlement Agreement, including, but not limited to, any claims for relief that were made or could have been made by Broughton in the matter of Broughton v. Payroll Made Easy, Inc. d/b/a Continuum HR, No. 2:20-cv-00041-SPC-NPM (M.D. Fla.). It is a further and equal purpose of this Supplemental Agreement to resolve any and all disputes, controversies, or claims that Broughton may have against Defendant and Released Parties, which arise out of facts or circumstances occurring in whole or in part on or before the effective date of this Supplemental Agreement, whether facts regarding any such claims are presently known or unknown, and regardless of whether same may be claimed to exist under current or future laws or interpretation of law.

2. Opportunity to Negotiate, Consider and Consult with Counsel: The terms of this Supplemental Agreement are the product of negotiations between the Parties hereto, and the Parties stipulate that the consideration given to support the obligations of this Supplemental Agreement is the full consideration agreed to, and that neither has received any other promises, inducements, or concessions in support of the duties imposed. In executing this Supplemental Agreement, Broughton has not relied on any representation, compromise, conduct, or action made by or on behalf of Defendant or Defendant’s attorneys. Broughton acknowledges that he has obtained the advice of competent counsel regarding this Supplemental Agreement and agrees that he has been given a reasonable period of time within which to consider this Supplemental Agreement. Broughton and Defendant confirm that they have had this Supplemental Agreement explained to them by their respective attorneys, they are relying on their own judgment and on the advice of their respective attorneys in executing this Supplemental Agreement, and each confirms their competence to understand and does hereby accept the terms and conditions of the Supplemental Agreement.

3. No Admission of Liability: The Parties stipulate and agree that entry into this Supplemental Agreement does not constitute, for any purpose whatsoever, either directly or indirectly, an admission of any liability, wrongdoing or unlawful conduct whatsoever, whether by omission or commission, by or on the part of any Party, and that Defendant expressly denies any such liability and conduct.

4. Consideration: The consideration given to Broughton under this Supplemental Agreement and the Settlement Agreement consists of payment to Broughton in the amount of Five Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($5,000.00), identified as Broughton’s Service Award in the Settlement Agreement, plus Broughton’s proportionate share of the Settlement Claim Fund as set forth in the Settlement Agreement. The consideration given by Broughton to Defendant in support of this Supplemental Agreement consists of full performance of each and every one of the respective obligations described in this document.

5. Release of Defendant and Released Parties: For and in consideration of the required acts and promises set forth in the text of this Supplemental Agreement, Broughton, for himself and his heirs, assigns, executors, administrators, agents, successors in interest, and legal representatives, hereby knowingly and voluntarily releases and forever discharges Defendant and the Released Parties from any and all claims, demands, causes of action, complaints, rights, actions, remedies, suits, or charges, known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, of any kind or character, in tort, in contract, or under any other law or statute whatsoever, accrued to date, which Broughton has or might have as a result of, or in any way connected with Broughton's employment with Blue Magma Residential, including but not limited to claims under the Fair Labor Standards Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, the Civil Rights Act of 1866 and 1871, the Americans With Disabilities Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, as amended ("COBRA"), the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Pregnancy Discrimination Act, the Equal Pay Act of 1973, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Occupational Safety and Health Act, the Immigration Reform and Control Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, 42 U.S.C. § 1981, the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act of 1988, the National Labor Relations Act, the Constitutions of the United States and State of Florida, the Florida Civil Rights Act, the Florida Minimum Wage Act, all other local, state or federal laws including but not limited to those relating to discrimination, harassment, retaliation, denial or termination of any health benefit or benefits of any other kind, or any claims of breach or violation of public policy, any claims arising under the Federal or any state constitution, wrongful or constructive discharge, retaliatory discharge, breach of contract, any and all claims or rights under federal, state or local laws, regulations or ordinances relating to the payment of wages, bonuses, overtime, vacation pay, expense reimbursement, incentives, and/or other compensation to employees (including under the Fair Labor Standards Act 29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq.), severance pay claims, promissory estoppel, fraud, fraudulent misrepresentation or concealment, retaliation, breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing, intentional and/or negligent infliction of emotional distress, outrageous conduct, interference with prospective business advantage, negligence, negligent misrepresentation or concealment, wrongful or bad faith termination, defamation and other business or personal injury, or any other claims or rights to damages, whether contractual, liquidated, compensatory, exemplary, or punitive, or rights to or claims for injunctive or equitable relief, or rights to or claims for expenses, costs, fees, attorneys' fees, and all losses of any kind whatsoever, accrued to date, which Broughton has or might have by virtue of any fact(s), act(s) or event(s) occurring prior to the effective date of this Supplemental Agreement, to the extent permitted by law. By signing this Supplemental Agreement, Broughton promises, covenants and agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by law, that he will never commence, prosecute or cause to be commenced or prosecuted, any action or other proceeding based upon any claims, demands, causes of actions, obligations, damages or liabilities which are released by this Supplemental Agreement. Broughton acknowledges and agrees that, except as expressly limited in this release, this Supplemental Agreement releases and precludes any claims of which he is not now aware and of which he may only become aware at some later date. Nevertheless,

Broughton fully and freely intends to and does, by executing this Supplemental Agreement, release any such claims. Notwithstanding the above, nothing in this release is intended to release or waive rights to any claim or right which cannot be waived by law, including all claims arising after the effective date of this Supplemental Agreement; the right to file a charge with or participate in an investigation conducted by an administrative agency; the right to enforce this Supplemental Agreement; any right to COBRA benefits, unemployment insurance benefits, or vested retirement benefits; nor any existing rights of defense and indemnity or liability insurance coverage.

6. Acknowledgment of Receipt of All Payment Owed: Broughton agrees and acknowledges that he has received all salary, wages, commissions, Paid Time Off (PTO), overtime payments, reimbursements, liquidated damages and employee benefits to which Broughton was and/or is entitled as a result of Broughton's employment with Blue Magma Residential, and specifically waives, releases and discharges any right or entitlement he may have to any further compensation or other payments from Defendant and the Released Parties, except as set forth in this Supplemental Agreement.

7. Non-Disparagement: Broughton agrees that he will neither say, write nor communicate in any manner to any person or entity anything derogatory or disparaging about Defendant, regardless of the truth or falsity of the information, except that nothing in this provision shall prevent Broughton from making any truthful statement in connection with any legal proceeding or any investigation by any governmental authority.

8. Confidentiality. Broughton agrees and understands that this Agreement, the contents and subject matter relating to or pertaining to this Agreement, and the consideration for this Agreement are strictly confidential, and shall not be discussed, referred to or communicated to third parties or any other person or entity, or in any way publicized, disclosed, distributed, discussed, or disseminated in any media format of any kind. For example, Broughton agrees not to: issue a press release or otherwise notify the media about the terms of this Agreement; disclose the terms of this Agreement through electronic or print advertising, including but not limited to disclosure on any blog, social networking site, website, or other Internet site; and/or otherwise discuss or disclose any of the terms of this Agreement through verbal, written, recorded or electronic communications. To the extent Broughton is contacted regarding the terms of this Agreement, he agrees to limit any comments to the statement, "The matter is resolved." Broughton agrees to instruct his attorney to abide by the provision of this section as well. Nothing contained herein shall prevent Broughton from disclosing the amounts paid under this Agreement to: (1) his spouse, attorneys, bank, and accountant or tax advisors, provided that each such person has been informed of this confidentiality obligation and has agreed to be bound by its terms, or (2) the IRS or state or local taxing authorities. Nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit Broughton from disclosing information protected by this paragraph to the extent it is sought by a lawful subpoena or pursuant to other valid agency or court action, or in any action to enforce the terms of this Agreement, provided that notice is provided to all parties of any lawful subpoena or valid agency or Court request.

9. Attorneys' Fees. Subject only to the application for attorney's fees as set forth in the Settlement Agreement in connection with the Action, Broughton expressly acknowledges and agrees that he alone is responsible and liable for paying any and all attorneys' fees and related costs and disbursements he has incurred in connection with (i) his prior employment relationship with Blue Magma and the termination of that relationship, (ii) the claims he has asserted or alleged or could have asserted or alleged against the Released Parties, and (iii) the negotiation and drafting of Settlement Agreement or this Supplemental Agreement, and that Defendant has no responsibility or obligation whatsoever to pay any attorney's fees, costs or disbursements.

10. Medicare Reporting Requirements. The Parties have considered Medicare's interest in this matter, if any, and Broughton declares and expressly warrants that he is not Medicare eligible nor within thirty (30) months of becoming Medicare eligible; is not 65 years of age or older; is not suffering from end stage renal failure; has not received Social Security benefits for 24 months or longer; and has not applied for Social Security disability benefits, and/or has not been denied Social Security disability benefits and appealing the denial; and therefore, no Medicare Set Aside Allocation is being established. Broughton attests that the claims released herein are not related to any illness or injury for which Broughton would apply or receive Medicare benefits. Broughton understands that he is required by law to disclose this information to Defendant and its attorneys in connection with this Supplemental Agreement. Broughton understands that failure to do so may result in penalties being assessed against Broughton, the Parties, and attorneys. Broughton declares and warrants that he is aware of the requirements of the Medicare Secondary Payer Act ("MSP"), and Broughton understands that Medicare has an interest in recovering any benefits paid when it is used as a source of secondary payment. Broughton therefore agrees to release, hold harmless, and indemnify Defendant from any remedies, reprisals, or penalties that result from Broughton's failure to disclose or release Broughton's status as a Medicare beneficiary. In the event that any of the above information provided by Broughton is false or in any way incorrect, Broughton shall be solely liable for any and all actions, causes of actions, penalties, claims, costs, services, compensation or the like resulting from these inaccuracies. Broughton acknowledges that Medicare may require him to exhaust the payment in Paragraph 4 on Medicare covered expenses should he become Medicare eligible within thirty (30) months. Broughton waives any claims for damages, including a private cause of action provided in the MSP, 42 U.S.C. Section 1395(b)(3)(A), should Medicare deny coverage for any reason, including the failure to establish a set aside allocation to protect Medicare's interest.

11. Knowing and Voluntary Agreement. The Parties to this Supplemental Agreement acknowledge and agree that each of them has had a full opportunity to carefully review the terms and provisions of this Supplemental Agreement and to review the Supplemental Agreement with their own attorney, that to the extent they wanted to talk to an attorney about this Supplemental Agreement they have availed themselves of that right, and that each of them enters into this Supplemental Agreement after appropriate investigation and consideration of the meaning and effect of the terms of this Supplemental Agreement and without reliance upon any representation of any other Party to this Supplemental Agreement other than those specifically set out herein and that they understand this Supplemental Agreement constitutes a final and complete release of all claims against the Party released, regardless of their kind or character, including any possible claim which might be discovered in the future. By executing this Supplemental Agreement, all the Parties represent and agree that they have carefully read and fully understand all the provisions of this Supplemental Agreement, and that they are knowingly and voluntarily entering into this Supplemental Agreement.

12. Specific Release of Age Discrimination in Employment Act Claims.

a. Waiver of ADEA Claims. Broughton acknowledges that this Supplemental Agreement includes a release and waiver of any and all claims of age discrimination Broughton may have under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA) and the Older Worker Benefits Protection Act. Broughton understands that Broughton is not releasing any ADEA claims that arise after Broughton signs this Supplemental Agreement.

b. Consideration for Waiver of ADEA Claims. The Parties agree that the promises set forth in Paragraph 4 are being provided, in part, in exchange for Broughton's knowing and voluntary release and waiver of all rights and claims Broughton has or may have arising under the ADEA.

c. Consideration Period. Broughton acknowledges that Defendant has advised Broughton, in writing, to consult with an attorney prior to executing this Supplemental Agreement, and that Defendant provided Broughton with at least twenty-one (21) days to review and consider this Supplemental Agreement before executing it. Broughton agrees that, if Broughton executes this Supplemental Agreement prior to the end of the twenty-one (21) day period, such early execution was a knowing and voluntary waiver of Broughton's right to consider this Supplemental Agreement for at least twenty-one (21) days.

d. Right to Revoke ADEA Claims. Broughton and Defendant agree that, for a period of seven (7) calendar days following the execution of this Supplemental Agreement, Broughton may revoke those provisions of this Supplemental Agreement releasing and waiving Broughton's rights and claims under the ADEA, and those provisions shall not become effective or enforceable until revocation period has expired without Broughton exercising the right to revoke. If Broughton wishes to revoke, Broughton must do so by confirmed delivery of written notice of revocation to counsel for Defendant, Matthew Simpson, no later than the seventh (7th) day following Broughton's execution of this Supplemental Agreement.

e. Binding Effect of Other Terms. All other terms and conditions of this Supplemental Agreement shall be binding and enforceable immediately upon Broughton's execution of this Supplemental Agreement, and shall remain effective regardless of whether Broughton revokes Broughton's waiver and release of ADEA rights and claims.

13. Remedies upon Breach. The Parties acknowledge and agree that, in the event of a breach of any of the terms or provisions of this Supplemental Agreement, nothing in this Supplemental Agreement shall be construed to preclude or limit any Party from asserting claims or filing a lawsuit for the purpose of: (a) recovering moneys paid under this Supplemental Agreement; (b) enforcing rights under this Supplemental Agreement; or (c) pursuing any other rights and remedies available under law, including equitable relief, injunctive relief, and damages.

14. Interpretation of Agreement. The Parties to this Supplemental Agreement acknowledge and agree that: (a) this Supplemental Agreement and its reduction to final written form are the result of good faith negotiations between the Parties through their respective counsel; (b) said counsel have carefully reviewed and examined this Supplemental Agreement before execution by said Parties, or any of them; and (c) any statute or rule of construction that ambiguities are to be resolved against the drafting Party shall not be employed in the interpretation of this Supplemental Agreement.

Broughton under this Supplemental Agreement may not be delegated and Broughton may not assign, transfer, or otherwise convey or dispose of this Supplemental Agreement, or any of its rights hereunder, and any such attempted delegation, assignment or disposition by Broughton shall be null, void, and without effect.

16. No Changes to Agreement: No modifications or amendments to any of the terms, conditions, or provisions of this Supplemental Agreement and the incorporated Settlement Agreement may be made except by a written agreement executed by all Parties hereto.

17. Representations Regarding Claims:

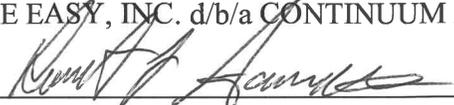

a. Broughton represents that he is not aware of any claims against Defendant other than those asserted in the Action and acknowledges that he has had the opportunity to discuss this matter with counsel of his choice, including Morgan & Morgan P.C.

b. Broughton represents and warrants that Broughton has not sold, assigned, transferred, conveyed or otherwise disposed of to any third Party, by operation of law or otherwise, any action, cause of action, debt, obligation, contract, agreement, covenant, guarantee, judgment, damage, claim, counterclaim, liability, or demand of any nature whatsoever, relating to any matter covered by this Supplemental Agreement.

18. Multiple Originals: This Supplemental Agreement is executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one instrument. Electronic or fax revisions shall be deemed originals.
